

VIDEO - We Will See More Spin-Offs In 2025

While the historical performance of spin-offs are mixed, there is no doubt that management teams are increasingly being advised by law firms and investment bankers about the potential to unlock or create value through spins. Some high profile recent successes, like GE Vernova spun from GE earlier this year can certainly help convince boards and management teams. Moreover, the positive regulatory environment that has fueled many recent M&A announcements will likely catalyze numerous spin-offs as well in 2025. Conglomerates, businesses in multiple end-markets and sectors, and those valued on a sum-of-the-parts basis are all obvious candidates.
